

Finding Services with Unite Us

RedHillRegistry.org

The Red Hill Registry's vision is a supported and informed Red Hill community built on trust. To help achieve this, we have partnered with Unite Us to provide referrals and resources tailored to our community needs.

Who is Unite Us?

Unite Us is a care coordination and referral platform that connects healthcare providers, government agencies, health plans, and community-based organizations to support whole-person health. Through its shared nationwide technology network, individuals can easily find and access local resources such as housing, childcare, education, and other essential services—right when they need them.

Founded by military veterans, Unite Us has helped millions of people connect to the care and support that improve health and quality of life. [1]

“This partnership supports actively connecting participants to resources. It allows us to fulfill our promise to the community, that every individual’s story is heard, and they receive the support they deserve.”

- Stephanie Wagner, Referral Manager for the Red Hill Registry. [2]

The Unite Us Partnership Helping the Red Hill Community

In focus groups and surveys conducted by the registry in November and December 2024, the Red Hill community identified several areas of need, including navigating health care and insurance, accessing social services, addressing employment and legal issues, housing, and education. The registry selected Unite Us because of its extensive existing network of services and ongoing commitment to expand resources. As new organizations and resources are identified, they can be added to the Unite Us platform to ensure services meet the needs of the community.

Anyone who visits the Red Hill Registry website—whether they are currently in the Red Hill community or have since relocated—can access the Public Resource Directory (PRD) powered by Unite Us to find resources and services close to where they live. [1]
